

Application for a Kenosha Junior Woman's Club Grant

Purpose: The Kenosha Junior Woman's Club supports local organizations that qualify as a non-profit, charitable/educational organization (501(c)(3)) who contribute to the welfare of the community, be it not for profit social programs, history or preservation or specific community projects. All applications must be postmarked by April 15 of each year, for consideration in KJWC's following year's charitable fundraising campaign. Incomplete applications will not be considered.

A: GUIDELINES: Applying programs, groups, or agencies must be an organization that qualifies as a non-profit, charitable/educational organization (501(c)(3)) dedicated to serving the Kenosha County area.

1. KJWC will not honor requests from individuals or other non-charitable requests.
2. Because of the variation in our fundraising success from year to year, we cannot make commitments of specific dollar amounts.
3. All applicants will receive written notice of acceptance or denial by June 30th.
